

TERMS & CONDITIONS OF ENTRY

Prize competitions

Last updated: 16 October 2026

1. About these terms

These terms apply to every competition run on 93club.co.uk. Each competition also has its own competition page, which sets out the specific details for that competition, including the prize, entry price, maximum number of entries, any per-person entry limit, the question, and the closing date (the "Competition Page"). The Competition Page forms part of these terms. If the Competition Page and these terms conflict, these terms apply.

By entering a competition, by either route, you agree to be bound by these terms. Please read them carefully before entering.

2. The Promoter

Competitions are run by 93 Club Ltd, a company registered in England & Wales (company number 17046194), whose registered office is Flat 5 Taaffe House, Dyke Road, Brighton, BN1 3RY ("we", "us", "our", "the Promoter"). Contact: info@93club.co.uk.

3. Definitions

- Entry: a single valid chance to win a competition, whether paid online or submitted free by post. Each Entry is given one Ticket Number.
- Ticket Number: the unique number given to each valid Entry, used in the draw.
- Closing Date: the date and time shown on the Competition Page when entry closes, as extended under clause 8 if applicable.
- Entrant: a person who submits an Entry. Winner: the Entrant whose Ticket Number is drawn and verified under clause 10.

4. Who can enter

- Competitions are open only to individuals aged 18 or over who live in the United Kingdom (England, Scotland, Wales and Northern Ireland). Residents of the Channel Islands, the Isle of Man and anywhere outside the United Kingdom cannot enter.
- Entries must be made by individuals, in their own name, for their own benefit. Entries made on behalf of another person, by companies or groups, or through bulk, automated or third-party entry services are not valid.
- Employees, officers and contractors of 93 Club Ltd, and anyone professionally connected with a competition, cannot enter.
- By entering, you confirm you meet these requirements. Any Entry from someone who does not is void, and no refund will be given for paid Entries made in breach of this clause.

5. How to enter

Every competition can be entered in two ways: a paid online Entry, or a free postal Entry. No purchase is necessary. Both routes are entered into the same draw in exactly the same way, and a free postal Entry has exactly the same chance of winning as a paid Entry.

Every competition includes a question, published on the Competition Page. Only Entries with the correct answer are valid. This applies equally to paid and postal Entries.

5.1 Paid online Entry

- Answer the question on the Competition Page, choose the number of Entries you want, and pay the price shown through our payment provider, Stripe. Any multi-Entry discounts are shown on the Competition Page.
- At checkout you must give your full name, email address, telephone number and postal address. These must be accurate, as we use them to contact you and verify you if you win.
- Your Entry is only accepted once payment has been successfully completed and confirmed by Stripe. You will receive a payment receipt by email.

5.2 Free postal Entry

- Write the following on a piece of paper: your full name, postal address, email address and telephone number; the name of the competition you are entering; and your answer to the question.
- Post it by standard first or second class post, with the correct postage paid, to: 93 Club Ltd, Flat 5 Taaffe House, Dyke Road, Brighton, BN1 3RY. It must arrive before the Closing Date.
- Each postal Entry must be sent in a separate envelope and counts as one Entry. You may send more than one postal Entry, subject to any per-person limit shown on the Competition Page.
- Postal Entries that are illegible, incomplete, sent by bulk, sent by a third party on someone else's behalf, or which arrive after the Closing Date will not be accepted. Proof of posting is not proof of delivery, and we are not responsible for post that is lost, delayed or damaged.

6. Entry limits

- Each competition has a maximum number of Entries, shown on the Competition Page. Valid postal Entries count towards this maximum in the same way as paid Entries.
- Where a Competition Page shows a per-person limit, it applies to all Entries from the same person combined, whether paid, postal, or both. We may treat Entries with the same name, address, email address, telephone number or payment card as coming from the same person.
- If the maximum number of Entries is reached, the competition closes and any further Entries, paid or postal, will not be accepted. If a paid Entry is taken after the maximum is reached, it will be refunded in full.

7. How Ticket Numbers are allocated

- Every valid Entry is given a unique Ticket Number, starting from 1 and running in sequence up to the maximum number of Entries.

- Paid Entries are numbered in the order in which payment is confirmed by Stripe. If you buy several Entries in one transaction, they receive consecutive numbers.
- Postal Entries are opened and logged each working day. Each valid postal Entry receives the next available Ticket Number on the day it is received and logged, in the same single sequence as paid Entries.
- Ticket Numbers are allocated the same way whichever route you use, and do not affect your chance of winning.
- We will email you your Ticket Number(s) after your Entry has been accepted, within 2 working days for paid Entries and within 2 working days of receipt for postal Entries. Entries with an incorrect answer are not given a Ticket Number, and we will let you know if your Entry was invalid.
- Before the draw, we will publish the full list of Ticket Numbers on the Competition Page or our social media, showing each Entrant's first name, the initial of their surname and their town or county only.

8. Closing Date and extensions

Each competition closes at whichever comes first: (a) the maximum number of Entries being reached, or (b) the Closing Date shown on the Competition Page.

We may extend the Closing Date of a competition once, by up to 28 days. We will announce any extension on the Competition Page and our social media at least 24 hours before the original Closing Date. Postal Entries arriving before the new Closing Date will be accepted. The draw will then take place after the new Closing Date, however many Entries have been received.

The prize is always awarded. A competition will not be cancelled, and the prize will not be withheld or carried over, because it has not sold out.

9. The draw

- The draw will take place within 7 days of the competition closing. The date will be announced on the Competition Page and our social media.
- The winning Ticket Number is chosen at random from all valid Ticket Numbers, paid and postal combined, using the True Random Number Generator at random.org.
- The draw will be streamed live or recorded, and the recording, or a screenshot of the random.org result, published on our social media so that it can be checked independently.
- The draw is final, subject to the Winner verification in clause 10.

10. Contacting and verifying the Winner

- We will contact the Winner by email and telephone, using the details given at entry, within 48 hours of the draw.

- Before we release any prize, the Winner must provide: (a) photographic ID (passport or driving licence) showing their name and date of birth; and (b) proof of address dated within the last 3 months (for example, a utility bill or bank statement). The name and address must match the details given at entry. For a paid Entry, we may also ask for evidence that the payment card used belongs to the Winner.
- If the Winner cannot be contacted, or does not respond, within 14 days of our first contact, or fails verification, or we reasonably believe has broken these terms, we may disqualify them and draw another Ticket Number at random, following the same process.
- We use verification documents only to confirm the Winner's identity, age and eligibility, and delete them once this is done (see our Privacy Policy).

11. The prize

- Prizes vary between competitions and may include watches, jewellery, electronics, vehicles, experiences or cash. The Competition Page for each competition describes the prize in full, including its model, specification, condition, what is included (for example, box, papers, accessories or warranty) and its estimated retail value at the time of listing.
- Unless the Competition Page expressly says otherwise, the prize includes only what is described on it. It does not include insurance, servicing, travel, accommodation, spending money, or any costs of using the prize. For vehicles, it does not include insurance, road tax, fuel or ongoing running costs, unless stated on the Competition Page.
- Prizes are non-transferable. No cash alternative is offered unless one is stated on the Competition Page.
- Where a prize is new, it is supplied with any manufacturer's warranty that comes with it, and the Winner's rights are against the manufacturer under that warranty. Where a prize is pre-owned, its condition is described on the Competition Page.
- If the advertised prize becomes unavailable for reasons outside our control, we will provide a substitute of equal or greater value, or, if the Winner prefers, its cash value at the time of listing.

12. Prize delivery

- Once the Winner is verified, we will deliver the prize at our cost, using tracked and insured delivery, to the Winner's verified address in the United Kingdom within 14 days, unless the Competition Page sets out a different arrangement (for example, collection of a vehicle or hand delivery).
- The Winner, or another adult at the address, may need to sign for the prize. Risk in the prize passes to the Winner on delivery.

13. Publicity

We will publish the Winner's first name, the initial of their surname and their town or county on our website and social media as proof that the prize was awarded. With the Winner's separate consent, which is optional and does not affect their prize, we may also share photos or video of the Winner with the prize. If the Winner asks us not to publish their details, we will publish their Ticket Number instead, but we may need to give their details to a regulator or authority if asked.

14. Refunds and cancellation

- Once an Entry has been accepted, it cannot be cancelled or refunded, except as set out in these terms or where the law requires it.
- If we cancel a competition under clause 17, all paid Entries for that competition will be refunded in full to the original payment method.
- If a payment is reversed or charged back, the related Entries are void and will be removed from the draw.

15. Playing responsibly

- Our competitions are for fun and should never be seen as a way to make money or solve financial problems. Only spend what you can afford.
- If you would like us to stop accepting Entries from you, for a set period or permanently, email info@93club.co.uk and we will block your details from entering.
- We may limit or refuse Entries from anyone if we have concerns about the amount they are spending.
- Free, confidential support is available from GamCare (www.gamcare.org.uk, 0808 8020 133).

16. Disqualification and fraud

We may refuse or disqualify any Entry, or Entrant, that we reasonably believe has broken these terms, given false details, tried to enter more than allowed, used automated or bulk methods, or acted dishonestly or fraudulently. If an Entrant is disqualified for breaking these terms, any paid Entries will not be refunded.

17. Changes and cancellation

We may amend, suspend or cancel a competition only where circumstances outside our reasonable control make it necessary, such as fraud, technical failure, or a change in the law. If we cancel a competition, all paid Entries will be refunded in full. We will not change the prize, entry price, maximum number of Entries or chance of winning of a live competition, except as set out in clauses 8 and 11.

18. Our liability

- We are not responsible for Entries that are lost, delayed or not received because of technical failure, postal delay, or other events outside our reasonable control.
- Nothing in these terms excludes or limits our liability for death or personal injury caused by our negligence, for fraud, or for anything else that cannot be excluded by law, or affects your statutory rights as a consumer.

19. Data protection

We use the personal data you give us to run competitions, as explained in our Privacy Policy at 93club.co.uk/privacy.pdf.

20. Social media

Our competitions are not sponsored, endorsed, administered by or associated with Meta, Facebook, Instagram, TikTok or any other social media platform. You release those platforms from any liability connected with our competitions.

21. Complaints

If you have a complaint about how a competition was run, please email info@93club.co.uk. We will acknowledge it within 3 working days and give you a full response within 14 days.

22. How our competitions are structured

Every 93 Club competition offers a free postal entry route alongside the paid online route. The free route is clearly published, is no less convenient than the paid route, and gives postal Entrants exactly the same chance of winning as paid Entrants. Our competitions are structured to operate lawfully in the United Kingdom without a gambling licence, under the Gambling Act 2005 in Great Britain and the equivalent law in Northern Ireland.

23. Governing law

These terms are governed by the law of England and Wales. The courts of England and Wales have jurisdiction over any dispute, but if you live in Scotland or Northern Ireland you may also bring proceedings in the courts of that country.
